“We’re in This Together”

“We’re in this together.” How often have we heard that over last 2 months? But it is so true and not only regarding COVID-19 now but also to the injustice and unrest that is occurring across our county. We, as Altrusans continue to be in this together in so many ways. Not just helping our communities but helping one another. I am so proud of each of you for being the glue that holds our clubs together during these unprecedented times. Two of our Altrusa members that I know of have been directly impacted by COVID-19 and all of us are impacted in some way by both the virus and the current events unfolding in our communities. Community service organizations like Altrusa are now more important than ever. The principles of Altrusa ring as true today as they did 100 years ago when Mamie L. Bass wrote them. Three of the twelve seem especially significant right now. “Altrusa is practical idealism. Its service consists, not in saying great things, but in daily earnest practice of its principles.” (#5) “Altrusa commends to its members an active interest in public affairs, realizing that the State is but the individual writ large” (#6) and “Altrusa expresses goodwill for all mankind. It emphasizes the good and the lets the evil sink into the oblivion it merits.” (#9). Stay firm in your belief in Altrusa and in the good of each of you and your club members. Continue to be there for one another and your communities. Despite all that is happening summer is starting to signal its glorious arrival and although it will look different this year than last year there are still new adventures to be had, experiences to be savored and memories to be made. Look forward to the good things to come and embrace the possibilities.

The Importance of Communication

"People fail to get along because they fear each other.

They fear each other because they don't know each other.

They don't know each other because they have not communicated with each other."

Martin Luther King, Jr.

Virtual Meetings

We still have a while to go before things will be back to normal where we can once again meet face to face. Meanwhile, I know many of our clubs are using Zoom to stay connected, hold meetings, elect new officers, and initiate new members. Thank you for reaching out and connecting with your club members. I encourage all our clubs, ASTRA clubs and Foundations to try Zoom for meetings and other events whenever possible. There will be more about Zoom in the Summer edition of the DSB coming to your computer soon. Meanwhile, Webmaster Leslie Johnson, as always, is available to assist you with Zoom if need be.

Delegates

Remember to send the name and email address of your club delegate or delegates to Hilary Sloan, District Secretary, secretary@altrusadistricteleven.org no later than June 8th.
